Welcome to this charming detached bungalow just on the edge of the semi-rural village of Marshchapel. As you step onto the wider than average plot, a sense of space and tranquility envelops you, accompanied by stunning views of open countryside stretching out behind the property.

This inviting home offers a unique blend of countryside serenity and convenient village amenities. Just a stone's throw away, you'll find a convenience store/post office, and service station. Marshchapel is an ideal location, perfectly positioned between the bustling towns of Louth and Grimsby, each a mere 12 miles away.

Step inside to discover a bungalow designed for flexible living. With two bedrooms and two inviting reception rooms, this bungalow easily adapts to your lifestyle needs. The dining kitchen offers integrated appliances including a dishwasher, oven, and hob with an extractor canopy above. The spacious bathroom boasts a white three-piece suite.

As you move through the property, a delightful conservatory greets you, showcasing the expansive rear views that lend an air of boundless space to your daily life whilst a utility room enhances practicality.

Elevated on its plot, the bungalow is surrounded by gardens on all sides. The long gravel driveway offers ample space for multiple vehicles, even accommodating a motorhome if desired. A brick-built single detached garage stands ready with a log store and additional wooden storage behind.

The rear garden unveils a lawn adorned with an array of plants, shrubs, and flowers, creating a private oasis that's perfect for relaxation or outdoor gatherings.

Seize the opportunity to make this bungalow your own - with no forward chain
