This interesting parcel of land is situated at Exwick on the Northwest side of Exeter just west of the Alphington to Crediton Road known as Saint Andrews Road at the northern end of the road. Access to the land is by way of an unmade farm lane over which there is a right of way which passing through Exwick Barton Farm and leading up to the land. The old buildings on Lot 3 are at the Northern end of the land which runs in a southerly direction to the pasture land. The pasture land can be reached by a rough track that is best approached in a robust 4 wheel drive vehicle. The location of the land is secluded despite being a short distance from residential developments. The pasture land has been grazed for many years.

The woodland has been planted with a variety of species. Poplar, Larch, Nordmann Christmas Trees, Willow, Alder and Birch, natural hardwoods and well grown Douglas Fir – the main wood known as Bolsters Wood has a fringe natural hardwood.

There are two loading bays one within the site one just to the North.

The owner is prepared to sell as a whole or in Lots, Lot 1 to be sold first, then Lot 2 and finally Lot 3.

- 1) These particulars are set out for the interested parties and purchasers as a guideline only. They are intended to give a fair description but not to constitute an offer or contract.
- 2) All descriptions, dimensions, distances, orientations and other statements/facts are given in good faith but should not be relied upon as being a statement or representation of facts.
- 3) Nothing in these particulars shall be deemed to be a statement that the property is in good condition or otherwise nor that any services are in good working order. The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. Interested applicants are advised to make their own enquiries and investigations before finalizing their offer to purchase.
- 4) The photographs appearing in these sales brochures show only certain parts and aspects of the property at the time the photographs were taken. Aspects may have been changed since the photographs were taken and it should not be assumed that the property remains precisely as displayed in the photographs. Items shown in photographs are not included unless specifically mentioned within the sales particulars. They may however be available by separate negotiation.
- 5) Any area measurements or distances referred to herein are approximate only.
- 6) Where there is reference in these particulars to the fact that alterations have been carried out, or that a particular use is made of any part of the property, this is not intended to be a statement that any necessary planning, building regulations or other consents have been obtained and these matters must be verified by any intending purchaser.
- 7) Descriptions of a property are inevitably subjective and the descriptions contained herein are used in good faith as an opinion and not by way of statement of fact. If there are any points of particular importance that need clarifying before viewing please do not hesitate to contact this office.
- 8) References to the tenure of a property are based on information supplied by the seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A buyer is advised to obtain verification from a solicitor and before finalizing their offer should make their own enquiries and investigations. Buyers should check the availability of any property and make an appointment to view before embarking on any journey to see a property.
