SITUATION

The Linhay forms part of a traditional farmstead on the fringes of the charming unspoilt village of Butterleigh, which stands in the hills above the Exe Valley. The village has a delightful parish church and well known country pub.

The property is conveniently positioned only four miles distant from Tiverton, which offers all the major amenities and there is good access to the M5 and excellent rail links to London Paddington and Waterloo from Tiverton Parkway station. In addition the neighbouring village of Silverton has an excellent range of local facilities including an award-winning butcher's/delicatessen/stores, two pubs, community hall, church and health centre.

The centre of the cathedral and university city of Exeter is about 11 miles distant.

DIRECTIONS

From Exeter proceed north on the A396 towards Tiverton. After 6 miles, after passing through Stoke Canon and Rewe, turn right signposted Silverton. In the centre of the village proceed north into Fore Street, continue out of the village onto Old Butterleigh Road. Continue on this road for 2.9 miles passing various farms, when dropping down the hill and just before reaching Butterleigh turn sharp right by a large light yellow house with separate garage. Continue along this road for 0.3 miles whereby the property will be found on the right hand side.
