DESCRIPTION

No. 2 Leigh House is a charming two bedroom terraced cottage, located in a convenient central position within the village. The property is well-presented throughout with a combination of original character features with modern attributes.

ACCOMMODATION

The entrance porch opens through to the kitchen/dining room with a range of units, including a fridge/freezer, under-counter single oven, ceramic hob and extractor hood. A step leads up to an additional storage space under the stairs. There is an internal hall with steps to the sitting room and a door opening to the shower room that has a wide shower and WC. The sitting room includes a wall-hung electric fire and two high-level windows that brighten the room with natural light. Beyond the sitting room is a small utility with access to the rear garden. On the first floor are two bedrooms, including a large principal bedroom to the front, and bathroom with shower over the bath.

The rear garden, accessed from the utility via a slabbed pathway, is mainly laid to lawn with the front part of the garden being raised with shrub-planted borders and closeboard fencing along the boundaries. The path continues to the top part of the garden, past a separating and established hedge and oil tank, with a decked seating area and service access to the side.

SITUATION

Whimble is a popular East Devon village maintaining a thriving community and an excellent range of amenities, including primary school, general store and Post Office, pub, church and doctor's surgery, along with a train station on the Waterloo line.

Ottery St Mary, to the east, offers a good range of amenities, including a supermarket and a selection of independent shops, whilst to the west, the city of Exeter has all the amenities associated with a major regional centre. Transport links are very accessible, the A30, M5 (junction 29) and Exeter International Airport are all within easy reach.

SERVICES

Mains water, drainage and electricity. Oil-fired central heating. EPC Band E. Council Tax Band B.
