SITUATION

Situated on the fringes of the popular South Hams village of Blackawton. Blackawton nestles amongst the stunning rolling hills and countryside of the South Hams. The village has a strong community, with a highly regarded primary school, a community shop, a village hall, the parish church of St Michael and a popular public house, the George Inn.

Dartmouth is the closest larger town and provides a more extensive range of facilities, lying as it does at the mouth of the River Dart, a spectacular estuary, famous as a sailing centre and home to Britannia Royal Naval College.

Totnes is located approximately 8 miles away, which is a bustling market town full of interest, with a range of independent shops and recreational facilities. The town is one of Devon's gems, full of colour and character that stems from a rich cultural, historical and archaeological heritage.

The facilities include a hospital, a wide range of good local schools, a supermarket, interesting range of independent shops and galleries together with riverside walks, the Guild Hall, cinema, churches and its very own Norman Castle. There is a mainline railway station to London Paddington. Totnes allows easy communication with the rest of the country, the A38 Devon expressway is approximately 6 miles away, allowing speedy access to the cities of Exeter and Plymouth and the country beyond.
