ACCOMODATION

Access to the cottage is via a sweeping driveway that opens into a spacious parking area, enclosed by a post and rail fence. On entry to the property you are greeted by a generously sized, bright L-shaped kitchen and breakfast room, featuring dual-aspect windows and tiled flooring. The kitchen has been recently updated, offering an abundance of wall and base units, a large central island with drawers and storage, an integrated electric hob, an eye-level double oven and a separate integrated fridge and freezer. The dining area includes exposed stonework and an original feature fireplace, with a door leading through to the main reception room.

Off the kitchen lies a spacious sunroom with a large bay window to the front which frames the idyllic rural views. French doors to the side open onto a sunken patio area, ideal for alfresco dining. Adjacent to the sunroom is a small guest WC with a stained-glass internal window and double doors from this area lead into the cosy main reception room. This charming and cosy space features an inglenook fireplace with a wood-burning stove. From here, a small step leads up to an additional reception room, which would make an ideal home office or snug.

Upstairs, the master bedroom benefits from an en suite bathroom, while two further light-filled double bedrooms offer beautiful views and include ample built-in wardrobes and generous storage. The family bathroom is fully tiled and features a walk-in shower, complemented by two useful airing cupboards.
