MAIN COURSE

Nestled in a tranquil backwater spot in the heart of the high street, this newly refurbished two-bedroom cottage offers a perfect blend of traditional charm and modern convenience. Accessed via a communal covered entrance, the property opens into a private hallway featuring a practical understairs storage cupboard.

The inviting sitting room is a highlight, boasting a large picture window that floods the space with natural light, and a part-glazed door that leads seamlessly to the rear garden, creating an ideal setting for relaxation and entertaining.

The refitted kitchen is well-appointed with essential appliances, including a washing machine, cooker, and fridge freezer. French doors from the kitchen open directly to the garden, enhancing the indoor-outdoor living experience.

Upstairs, the cottage comprises two bedrooms. The first is a generously sized double, while the second offers flexibility as a large single or a small double. A modern three-piece shower room completes the first floor.

The private, part-walled garden provides a serene outdoor space for enjoying the warmer months.

Available from mid-August, this delightful cottage combines the best of village life with the convenience of high street amenities on your doorstep.

Don't miss the opportunity to make this charming property your new home.

Sorry no pets.

The property does not come with parking but there are several carparks close by.
