The location

Cale Green and Davenport are popular areas located in the heart of Stockport close to local shops, cafes, and restaurants, providing residents with everything they need within walking distance. Davenport is a district of Stockport, Greater Manchester, England; until 1974, it was part of Cheshire. At the 2011 census, it had a population of 14,924.[1]. The railway station, at Davenport's main road junction, allows travel by rail towards Manchester Piccadilly, Stockport, Hazel Grove and Buxton. Services are generally half-hourly, but hourly on Sundays. Local bus services are operated by Stagecoach. Routes include the regular 192 service along Buxton Road between Manchester and Hazel Grove. Cale Green Park is a popular local attraction with its bowling green, tennis court, basketball court and playground. Stockport Lacrosse Club, the oldest in the world, have played at Cale Green Cricket Club since 1876.

The Grounds and Gardens

To the front of the property there is a walled front yard which leads to the front entrance. To the rear there is a private south-facing garden (which benefits from a paved patio area and lawn with bushes and shrubs and enjoys a high level of privacy).
