Summary

Welcome to this delightful 1920s semi-detached home, full of charm and character, offering stylish and comfortable living in a highly convenient location. Lovingly maintained and thoughtfully improved, this property is ideal for families or anyone looking for a home with both period appeal and modern touches.

The home is accessed via a recently added entrance porch, leading into a welcoming hallway that immediately sets the tone for the rest of the house. The lounge, with its attractive bay window, is filled with natural light and offers a cosy space to unwind. The heart of the home, however, is the beautifully appointed kitchen. Featuring navy blue cabinetry, a central island with breakfast bar, and high-quality finishes, it's a perfect space for both cooking and entertaining. The kitchen flows effortlessly into a conservatory extension, which overlooks the rear garden and provides a bright and versatile space for dining or relaxing.

Upstairs, the property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a main bedroom with recently fitted wardrobes. A family bathroom and separate WC add further convenience to this well-designed home.

Externally, the front garden is attractively landscaped with mature hedging, offering both privacy and kerb appeal. To the side is a driveway providing off-street parking for up to three vehicles, as well as a detached single garage for further parking or storage. The rear garden is a peaceful haven, with a neatly maintained lawn, mature borders, and a high degree of privacy – perfect for outdoor entertaining or simply relaxing.

Ideally located, the property is close to a range of local amenities, excellent schools, and a nearby train station. Micklefield Park and the golf club are also within easy walking distance, making this an ideal home in a sought-after area. Early viewing is highly recommended.
