SITUATION AND DESCRIPTION

A stylish coastal apartment in an established development of a Grade II listed Victorian terrace in superb location on Torquay's harbourside in the heart of the English Riviera, boasting dramatic sea views over harbour and picturesque Torbay. The apartment occupies a second-floor position with passenger lift and stair access and benefits from period features and generous living space. This stunning property briefly consists of a spacious entrance hall, two bedrooms with a four-piece suite bathroom en suite to bedroom one and a further three-piece suite shower room. A generous living room measuring 22' by 14'6" with full length wooden sash windows and high ceilings, separate galley kitchen and very ample storage throughout.

On the coastal property front line, facing southwest with sea views across the bay and busy harbour, this apartment is next door to the Royal Torbay Yacht Club and conveniently situated a short stroll from the harbourside development and its amenities and attractions, restaurants including several of Torbay's finest, cafes and bars, shops and the Princess Theatre. Torquay Harbour is an international deep-water marina and there is a constant traffic of marine leisure craft and Torbay is probably the best dinghy sailing arena in the UK. For all things seaside, the English Riviera is perfect with nine beaches within the bay, including some beautiful and secluded ones and all manner of water sports.

The bay has mainline railway links to London Paddington and the Cathedral City of Exeter and the motorway network is within easy reach via the new South Devon Link Road.

ACCOMMODATION

From the large Communal Entrance with video door entry system there is access to the second-floor landing by both lift and stair where a heavy panelled private entrance door with Banhams lock opens into the apartment. A lobby with fitted boot cabinet and four wide steps rises to the spacious entrance hall with character archways. The video door entry receiver is here and an airing cupboard housing the immersion cylinder and fuse panel. There is dado rail with mouldings below, brushed steel switches, power points and door furniture and contemporary art deco wall lights throughout the property. The living room features three 12-pane full height sash windows with boxed-in radiators below, giving stunning views across Torbay and taking in Torquay Harbour. The room boasts high ceilings with egg and dart cornice and a feature gas fireplace with marble hearth which creates an attractive focal point at one end and at the other end a full-width bespoke wooden bookshelf and cabinet. Dimming wall and socket lights, television, telephone and ethernet points. The original separate galley kitchen with swing door is fully fitted with wooden cupboards and drawers below and matching wall cabinets and open shelving above. Wood trim working surfaces with tiled splashbacks and inset twin bowl sink with mixer tap, waste disposal unit and single drainer. Integrated appliances include four-ring electric hob and oven and grill, there is a dishwasher and spaces for fridge/freezer and washing machine. Within one of the cupboards is the floor-mounted gas fired boiler. The principal bedroom has French windows opening to Juliet balcony, two generous fitted double wardrobes with dressing table between, boxed in radiator, wall mounted bedside reading lights and central dimming light. A door to en suite bathroom with panelled bath with built-in shower cubicle, integrated vanity unit and storage drawers, bidet and close coupled WC, heated ladder towel rail. Bedroom two is a double room with short sash window to rear, two generous fitted double wardrobes, radiator and central dimming light. A separate shower room features a three-piece suite comprising walk-in double shower cubicle, pedestal wash hand basin and WC. Glass shelving and mirror.
