Hart Road, West Byfleet, KT14 7NQ

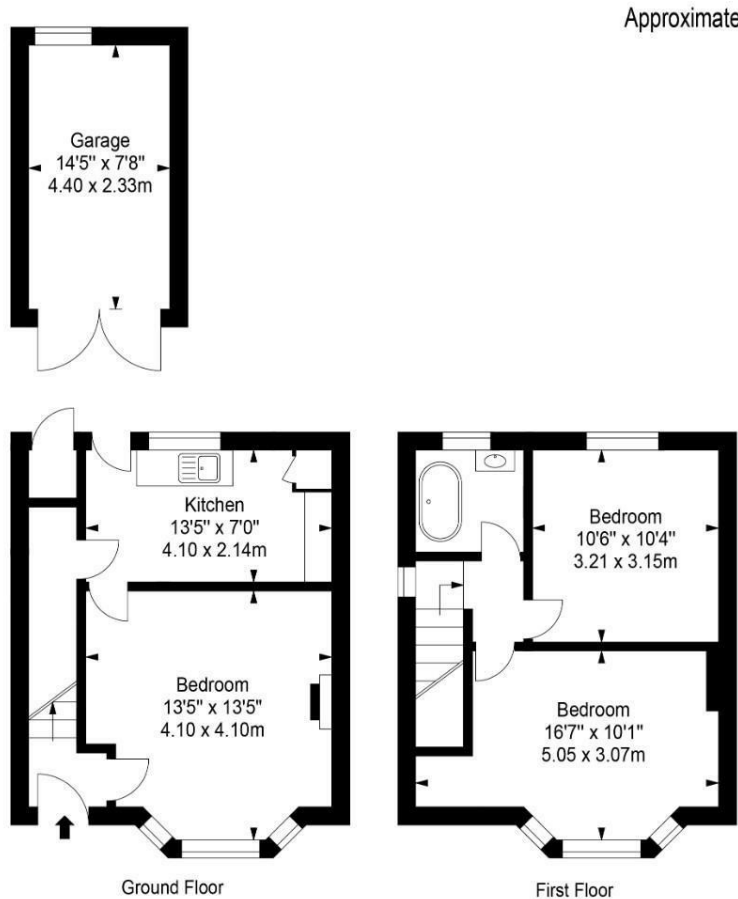

Offers In The Region Of £372,500

An opportunity to purchase a generous sized two-bedroom Semi-detached house positioned in a quiet road in the heart of Byfleet Village, within walking distance to local shops and amenities, a stone throw to the local Village Primary school and close to all main transport links. In need of modernisation throughout but providing an excellent opportunity to transform into a lovely home in a good location, potential to extend subject to planning. The property has a good size frontage which could be turned into private driveway and side access to garage which also provides off street parking. Small hallway leading into a spacious light and bright sitting room to the front aspect, the large window allows this room to flood with natural daylight. A good size kitchen to the rear aspect overlooking the garden and including a large walk-in cupboard, the back door allows access out on to the private rear garden. Upstairs is a generous landing space allowing access to the loft. Two large double bedrooms and family bathroom. The added benefit to this property is the large private rear garden a lovely outside space to be enjoyed and also providing space for extending the property. The garage is perfect for storage. EARLY VIEWINGS RECOMMENDED!
