A delightful first-floor studio flat set within a small, characterful Grade II Listed block built in 1916 and designed by renowned architect John Soutar. This lovely building is tucked away in a quiet and picturesque turning just off Erskine Hill, yet only a short walk from the shops, cafés, and excellent transport links of Temple Fortune. In very good decorative condition, the property features two separate balconies, offering lovely outlooks and plenty of natural light. Residents also benefit from well-maintained communal gardens, adding to the charm and tranquillity of the setting. The flat is offered for sale chain free.
