A well-presented four-bedroom detached home, situated in the sought-after 'Westwood Fields' area on the western fringes of Tilehurst, bordering Purley-on-Thames. This superb property enjoys a desirable position siding onto a peaceful copse, offering a pleasant natural outlook and added privacy. It is within walking distance of Tilehurst train station (Reading mainline, Paddington, and Oxford), providing excellent commuter links. The River Thames and miles of picturesque countryside in the neighbouring village of Purley are also close by, along with well-regarded primary and secondary schools, including Westwood Farm and Denefield. The convenience of a local Tesco Express and a regular bus service into Reading town centre further enhances the appeal of this location.

The ground floor accommodation comprises an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor, a cloakroom, a spacious dual-aspect 19' living room, and a generous 19' kitchen/breakfast room featuring ample storage and work surfaces. Upstairs, the landing leads to four well-proportioned bedrooms, with bedroom one benefiting from an en-suite shower room, while a modern fitted family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms. Additional benefits include gas radiator central heating and newly fitted UPVC windows and doors.

Externally, the property boasts a fully enclosed, landscaped rear garden, mainly laid to lawn with well-stocked borders, a patio area, and a shingled section with a wooden shed. A partially converted double garage offers a versatile space that could be used as a home office or games room, with an additional storage area. Gated side access leads to the front, where the driveway provides ample off-road parking.
