A unique and well presented characterful apartment situated in a former lodge, located on the border of West Reading and the suburb of Tilehurst. This convenient location is within a short walk to a wealth of amenities to include several frequent bus services, Prospect Park, 24 hour gym and a range of shops, supermarkets, cafes, pubs and restaurants. Both Tilehurst and West Reading train stations are each approximately 1 mile and Reading's vibrant town centre is under 2 miles away.

This attractive home is approached via a block paved car park providing allocated residents parking (with additional visitor spaces) with a communal front door with intercom entry system opening to a grand communal entrance hall. From here, a private front door services the property. Well presented throughout, accommodation is accessed via an L-shaped central hallway, which also opens to the well appointed modern fitted kitchen which includes integrated oven, hob, fridge, freezer, washing machine and water softener. Engineered wood flooring from the hallway continues into the front aspect living room with French doors opening to a delightful private walled courtyard garden. Bedroom 1 features an en-suite shower room and rear aspect French Doors opening to a second private outside courtyard garden with timber built shed, gated pedestrian access (ideal for bicycles). Bedroom 2 overlooks this courtyard and is serviced by a separate fully tiled bathroom with contemporary white suite and heated towel rail.

This fantastic and individual home must be seen to be truly appreciated. Please contact Sansome & George Estate Agents for more information or to schedule a viewing appointment at your earliest convenience.
