This substantial and well-presented five bedroom detached home, built by Haddock in the 1980s, offers generous family accommodation across three floors. Situated in a highly desirable area of Tilehurst, the home is ideally located for access to excellent local schools, regular bus services, a variety of shops, and the amenities of Tilehurst village.

Accommodation comprises a welcoming hall, ground floor WC, front to rear aspect living room, separate dining room, kitchen, utility room, and a spacious multi-functional family room (converted garage). Stairs rise to the first floor and offer four good sized bedrooms featuring an en suite shower to bedroom 2 and family bathroom. The property has been thoughtfully improved with a stylish loft conversion, creating a superb principal bedroom suite complete with a dressing area and en suite shower room.

Benefits include gas radiator central heating and UPVC double glazed windows.

To the front has a small arear laid to lawn and has a driveway which offers ample off road parking.

The rear is a landscaped fully enclosed corner plot garden, mainly laid to lawn, with the added advantage of a swimming pool and deck area.
