This three bedroom semi detached home is situated in a sought after cul-de-sac close to Tilehurst village, an area known for its wide range of local amenities, reputable schools, and convenient transport links. Bus services are readily available nearby, while Tilehurst railway station offers direct connections to central London. Junction 12 of the M4 motorway is also within easy reach, making this an ideal location for commuters.

The property itself requires full modernisation throughout, presenting an excellent opportunity for those looking to add value or create a bespoke family home. Set on a generous plot, it boasts sizeable front, side, and rear gardens, offering tremendous potential for extension, whether it be to the side, rear, or even a full wrap-around addition. The current accommodation includes an entrance hall, a ground floor WC, a spacious living room running from front to rear, a kitchen, three well proportioned bedrooms, and a shower room. The home benefits from gas radiator central heating (not tested) and double-glazed windows, though both may benefit from upgrading.

The rear garden is particularly substantial, with mature planting and areas now partly overgrown, while the side garden presents a clear opportunity for expansion. The property also enjoys a generous frontage, with ample space to create driveway parking.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this is a fantastic project for buyers seeking a home with both potential and position.
