Asking Price £1,849,000

11 Dyers Lane

Lymm WA13

This highly impressive and fully renovated former farmhouse and adjacent two bedroom Annex are located within easy walking distance of the desirable village of Lymm. Having undergone extensive renovations and enhancements, the current owners have created a luxurious family home incorporating many period features such as reclaimed oak beams. The south facing walled gardens and outside Pizza kitchen with adjacent entertaining spaces add to the stand out features of the house as do the kitchen garden with raised beds and cedar constructed summer house. The added benefit of the adjacent detached annex provides further flexible accommodation that has many potential uses.

General Description

Built circa. 1800 Rushgreen House has been sympathetically renovated and updated by the current owners to a particularly high standard. Formerly known as Oak Farm the extensive use of oak both old and new continues throughout the property from solid oak window frames to reclaimed oak beams.

Accommodation is spread over three floors with four bedrooms to the first floor and two further bedrooms on the second. There is an additional 7th bedroom in the adjacent annex. Many of the bedrooms benefiting from air conditioning.

Providing the perfect space for entertaining, the large oak constructed garden room is the perfect link to the external entertaining area where the heated outside kitchen boasts a Valoriani Pizza oven and mains gas fed barbeque for hosting all year round. This leads to the adjacent sunken dining area and hot tub enclosure.

Additional features within the grounds are the woodland with a variety of trees including Oak and hazel and attractive wild flower beds. The walled planting area with raised beds and self ventilating greenhouse provides the perfect kitchen garden.

The adjacent annex provides further flexibility for additional accommodation or potential office space.
