Attractive Victorian terraced home in Walthamstow village with a tidy low maintenance garden and 4 bedrooms.

This family home has way more space than you might expect with a through, dual aspect reception room leading onto a sleek kitchen-diner, the fully integrated kitchen is filled with natural light from overhead, and with a sliding door that leads out to the well maintained rear garden, perfect for summer entertaining. Wood panelling and Victorian features give the home character such as the bay window in the lounge area, and the original restored floorboards and skirtings which continue throughout the home.

Upstairs there's a large family bathroom with separate shower, and 2 double bedrooms. Up again and the loft conversion features another large bedroom with skylight, eaves storage and ensuite, also bedroom number 4, which has exposed brick detail and a lovely view.

Despite living in the buzz and culture of Walthamstow village, Cromwell Road is a quiet location, with the natural retreats of Epping Forest and Hollow Ponds just half a mile away. There's a wide variety of highly rated schools within walking distance and being in the village you have everything you might need on the doorstep including independent local shops, brilliant cafes, bakeries, restaurants and pubs. Favourites to explore are the local Wildcard Brewery at the Ravenswood Estate, The Castle, Eat17, Queen's Arms and many more, with historical spots like the Vestry House Museum, all nearby.

Transport's excellent too with a 15 minute walk or 5 minute cycle to Walthamstow Central station for tube and Overground services that can have you in town within 20 minutes (and plenty of seats). Ready to take a look?
