Large, elegant family home in Walthamstow village, popping with original and contemporary features. The home's been renovated from top to bottom, with its original Victorian features including tiling, coving, doors and double skirting boards, carefully restored throughout. The kitchen-diner has an abundance of natural light and a layout that creates roomy areas for both dining and cooking. This leaves strong spaces in the remaining ground floor for a calm and elegant lounge with bay windows, and a second reception room with patio doors, leading out to the garden, with added texture from the exposed brick fireplace. The garden is charming, well established with fruit bearing fig and plum trees, a shed and a dining area; and being south west facing will get the sun all day. Upstairs the family bathroom is spacious and pristine with a contemporary walk-in shower. The double bedrooms are roomy and comfortable, with bay windows to the front and back rooms. There's also potential for a loft conversion STPP. Salisbury Road is a quiet residential area, with friendly neighbours who share a Whatsapp group. The Walthamstow village location is one of the most desired postcodes in east London due to its history, community and village culture. There's a variety of highly rated schools within walking distance - and space - with Wingfield Park nearby and Lloyd Park (where there's a Saturday farmers' market), plus Epping Forest is just a 7 minute cycle from home. There's sports grounds, the Feel Good Centre, the Vestry House Museum, and a brilliant local huddle of authentic pubs, restaurants, cafes, bars, bakeries and independent shops. Favourites include Froth & Rind, The Castle pub, God's Own Junkyard, Eat 17 and our award-winning Spar serving local produce. But there's a hundred more to explore, all a few minutes from home. You're well linked for transport too with Walthamstow Central and Wood Street Stations both less than a mile away for Victoria line and Overground services.
