Discover the charm of this ground-floor Warner maisonette, offering two double bedrooms and a warm, inviting atmosphere from the moment you step through the original front door.

The reception room, bathed in natural light from two large, shuttered windows, is an attractive soft lilac colour, creating a cosy and inviting space. The sleek kitchen features a Heritage star-patterned tiled floor, adding a touch of elegance. The primary bedroom echoes the reception room's calming palette, with two large, shuttered windows and original floorboards, while the second bedroom is painted a classic, cool green. The bathroom, retaining the original floorboards and painted in a complementary green, features a practical three-piece suite with a shower over the bath and two large storage cupboards. A clever use of space is found in the compact study tucked beneath the stairs, while ample storage solutions ensure a clutter-free environment throughout the home. The east-facing shared rear garden enjoys gentle morning sunlight, perfect for starting the day. This property exudes a sense of history, with original sash windows updated with double glazing and period features, and offers generously sized rooms with flexible layout options.

Situated on a pretty street, backing onto Lloyd Park, it's close to multiple transport links, including Walthamstow Central Station, just a short stroll away. You'll find yourself within easy reach of local favourites such as Buhler & Co., the William Morris Gallery, the open-air gym in Lloyd Park, Walthamstow Trades Hall, Big Penny Social, Burnt Faith, and Walthamstow Wetlands. The anticipated opening of the Soho Theatre adds to the vibrant local scene. Furthermore, easy access to the M11 and airports via public transport makes weekend getaways a breeze.
