This captivating four-bedroom Victorian terraced house presents a quintessential façade that exudes character. Step inside to discover a welcoming reception room, bathed in natural light from a charming bay window, where a striking feature fireplace serves as a focal point. The reception room flows seamlessly into the dining room, complete with bespoke integrated bookshelves and storage, providing both functionality and aesthetic appeal. Herringbone flooring unites these spaces, creating a sense of continuity and sophistication that extends into the expansive kitchen/breakfast room. This stunning area is flooded with natural light thanks to an impressive glass ceiling and wall. The kitchen boasts subtle pink cabinetry, which is paintable should you want an easy change, complemented by artesano backsplash tiles in a pale green-blue hue and durable quartz worktops. The breakfast room features cacti wallpaper and a full glass wall, offering a unique visual connection to the beautiful rear garden with a paved patio ideal for al fresco dining, a lush lawn, and an array of established plants, creating a private retreat.

On the first floor is the principal bedroom, featuring built-in wardrobes and two windows that bathe the room in natural light. A second bedroom and a family bathroom with a luxurious roll-top bath are also on this floor. The thoughtfully executed loft conversion provides two further bedrooms. The larger of the two benefits from an en-suite shower room. The second loft bedroom is currently utilised as a study.

Situated on the outskirts of the village, this delightful home enjoys a peaceful setting while remaining conveniently close to local amenities. Wood Street Overground Station is just a short stroll away, offering easy access to the wider city. Nearby, you'll find popular local establishments such as Dudley's, The Lacy Nook, and The Duke, adding to the vibrant and practical lifestyle this location affords.
