On a quiet residential cul-de-sac, this spacious five-bedroom 1930s semi-detached house is a delightful home that offers a wonderful blend of period charm and modern convenience, perfect for growing families.

The inviting through lounge is bathed in natural light, featuring a classic bay window to the front that creates a bright and airy atmosphere. At the rear, French doors open out onto the large, well-maintained garden with a patio and decking area, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor living. The contemporary kitchen/diner, equipped with a traditional Belfast sink, perfectly overlooks the garden and also offers direct access outside. The ground floor also benefits from practical storage and a convenient downstairs WC.

Ascending the stairway, you are greeted by the beauty of original stained-glass windows, a nod to the home's heritage. The first floor accommodates three bedrooms, with the two largest benefiting from attractive bay windows. The room to the front also boasts useful built-in storage. Also located on this floor is the modern family bathroom, which features a desirable separate walk-in shower. The bathroom is further distinguished by an original stained-glass '50 pence' window, and there is a separate WC for added convenience.

The loft conversion provides two further bedrooms, both of which benefit from built-in storage.

This property is situated in a particularly quiet area, renowned for its friendly, community feel, where children still play in the street. It provides essential off-street parking and boasts an excellent location for commuters and families alike. Highams Park Overground station is just a short walk away, offering easy access to Walthamstow and Chingford. The house is also well positioned for good schools and leisure pursuits, being close to the expanse of Epping Forest, as well as popular local pubs and the highly regarded Bollywoods Indian restaurant.
