Nestled within a sought-after turning, this charming one double bedroom ground floor flat offers a delightful blend of period features and modern living. The generously sized reception room is a truly inviting space, bathed in natural light streaming through a beautiful tall bay window, creating an airy and bright atmosphere throughout the day, leading to a sleek and modern kitchen/diner complete with a dedicated dining nook that makes hosting friends and family a breeze.

The property is neutrally decorated throughout and features impressive tall ceilings. Original hardwood floors flow seamlessly through the front room, dining area, hallway, and bedroom. Elegant restored coving further enhances the property's period charm. The exceptionally spacious bedroom is a peaceful retreat, featuring French doors that open directly onto the garden decking, extending your living space outdoors. The south-facing garden is a true highlight, promising sunny afternoons and providing an ideal backdrop for barbecues and relaxed evenings with friends. A notable additional feature is the versatile outhouse, which benefits from a full electricity supply, presenting a fantastic opportunity for a dedicated office, gym, or studio space.

Situated at the end of a terrace, the flat benefits from friendly neighbours and a wonderful residential feel. The location is also incredibly convenient, being just a short walk from Walthamstow Central Station, which offers excellent transport links and shops, and is close to the vibrant Village. Residents can look forward to the upcoming opening of the Soho Theatre, and in the meantime, enjoy comedy nights at The Rose & Crown. The area also boasts a fantastic selection of local amenities, including Sodo Pizza just a few minutes away, Mego for coffee, The Nag's Head for pub quizzes, and the picturesque Lloyd Park for sunny strolls.
