6 Four Ashes Road

 A delightful two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow, occupying a desirable position with open countryside views * Situated just a short walk from the centre of Brewood, one of South Staffordshire's most sought-after villages * Hall * Lounge with patio doors opening onto a pleasant rear garden * Fitted kitchen * Two bedrooms * Modern bathroom * Lobby * Driveway parking * Garage * NO CHAIN ***

This attractive bungalow enjoys a semi-rural setting opposite Brewood Cricket Club, offering an appealing balance of countryside outlook and village convenience. Just a few minutes' walk from Brewood's charming village centre, the property is ideally positioned for access to an excellent selection of local amenities, including a traditional butcher, baker, pubs, independent retailers, and well-regarded schools such as St Dominic's Grammar School and Brewood First and Middle Schools.

With excellent transport links via the nearby A41, A449, and M54/M6 (Toll), Brewood offers straightforward commuting to Wolverhampton, Stafford, and beyond, while retaining the character and tranquillity of village life. This is a perfect opportunity for downsizers or first-time buyers seeking peaceful living in a vibrant and well-connected community.

Fixtures & Fittings - All carpets and curtains are excluded from the sale but may be available by separate negotiation.
