

VENTURE
PLATINUM

High West Road | Crook
Offers Over £250,000

This three-bedroom detached bungalow is offered for sale in Crook and is presented in good condition. The property provides practical single-storey living, with three reception rooms offering flexible space for living and dining, and one kitchen serving the home.

Accommodation includes two double bedrooms and one single bedroom, suitable for a range of household needs. The shower room complements the layout and supports convenient day-to-day use.

Externally, the bungalow benefits from a large south-facing front garden, providing an attractive outdoor area with good natural light throughout the day. To the rear, there is a substantial driveway leading to a garage, offering generous off-street parking.

The property is situated in Crook, a market town in County Durham with a selection of local shops, supermarkets, cafés and essential amenities centred around the town centre. Crook offers access to local primary and secondary schools, along with leisure and recreational facilities in and around the town.

Public transport in Crook is mainly provided by local bus services, with routes towards Bishop Auckland and Durham, where mainline rail connections are available to destinations including Newcastle, Darlington, York and London. Road links by car connect Crook to the wider region via the A68 and A690, giving access to County Durham and beyond.

This detached bungalow represents an opportunity to purchase a well-arranged three-bedroom home with garden, parking and garage in a convenient Crook location.
