Hasker Street, SW3

A bespoke and interior designed freehold house located in the heart of Chelsea and moments from Sloane Square. The spacious reception room, private garden and three large bedrooms make this the ideal family home.

As you enter the property you are welcomed by a spacious double reception room. Bespoke french doors leading out onto a balcony have been installed to create a bright, airy and comfortable space. On the lower ground floor of the house is a wonderful, spacious kitchen and family space which leads to the private patio garden.

Positioned on the second floor is the principal bedroom with a large en-suite bathroom, finished to the highest of standards. A further two double bedrooms, each with their own separate bathrooms on the first floor make up the remainder of this lovely home.

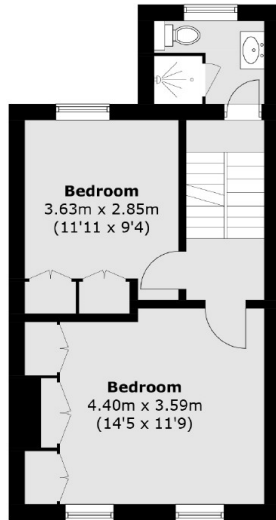

Hasker Street is a pretty residential street located between South Kensington and Sloane Square tube stations. The boutique shops and famous restaurants located on Walton Street are moments away.
