Cadogan Gardens, SW3

The unassuming redbrick facade conceals this refurbished and interior designed three double bedroom duplex apartment. The property is entered into a hallway on the raised ground floor that leads through to the spacious reception room from which the first of the two private terraces is accessed. The raised ground floor is also home to one of the two guest bedrooms.

A beautifully crafted staircase with glass balustrade leads down to the garden level with the second reception and contemporary open plan kitchen with integrated Gaggenau appliances. With a large patio garden accessed via sliding doors from the dining area this is perfect for those who love to entertain in the summer.

The master suite with walk in wardrobe and stunning en suite with his and hers sinks double shower cubicle and bathtub. There is also a further double bedroom with fitted storage and en suite shower room. The property also benefits from a daytime caretaker, lift access, air cooling system and state of the art wireless sound system controlled via tablet.
