Coulson Street, SW3

Entering the house you are straight into the double reception room. The reception room is flooded with natural light from the front and rear of the house as well as two featured fireplaces. At the rear of the house is one of the double bedrooms.

On the first floor there is the principal bedroom with a good amount of built in storage. There is a large bathroom with a separate shower and bath. There is also another bedroom located on this floor.

On the lower ground floor is where you will find the kitchen with an island and another reception room which would work perfectly as a dining area with French doors leading directly to the patio garden.
