Oakley Street, SW3

A charming family home spanning over 2300sqft in the heart of Chelsea. This property has three bedrooms, a large kitchen with breakfast room and benefits from a terraced garden backing onto Margareta Terrace.

Spread over four floors, this wonderful home offers plenty of character and opportunity for someone to improve and refurbish the property should they wish to do so.

Located on the ground floor is a double reception room, flooded with natural light which overlooks the terraced garden. On the lower ground floor is a spacious kitchen and breakfast room with a separate dining area. The principle bedroom is located on the first floor with a large bathroom and separate study. Positioned on the top floor of the house are two further bedrooms and one bathroom.

Oakley Street is found in the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea. It runs roughly North to South from the King's Road to Cheyne Walk. Battersea Park is within walking distance as is the Kings Road offering a variety of shops and restaurants.
