Centrally located in the heart of Woodstock, this Grade II listed home has been masterfully presented to combine period charm with elegant modern day interventions that maximise space and foster a strong connection between inside and out. Unfolding over three floors, the property offers the perfect retreat for both entertaining and relaxation.

Entry is into the open plan kitchen/dining/sitting room which spans the entire depth of the property. Bespoke kitchen cabinetry and granite work surfaces sit harmoniously beneath the original timber beams. The space opens into a relaxed sitting area with bi-fold doors onto the stone-walled west facing courtyard. Ascending to the first floor, a more formal dual aspect sitting room is centred by the wood burning stove and French doors which lead to the Astroturf terrace. The two double bedrooms can be accessed via separate staircases offering a good degree of privacy. As one would expect, the bathroom has been finished to the same exceptional standard as the rest of the property and consists of a walk in rain shower and twin basin. There is also a cellar which can be accessed from the kitchen. In recent years the property has been successfully run as an Airbnb and is offered with no onward chain.
