This particularly attractive double fronted 'low built' house is arranged in a corner position and consequently benefits from a huge amount of natural light. Accommodation which covers approximately 3,982 square feet is principally arranged with the reception room, dining room and kitchen / breakfast room on the ground floor and main bedroom suite on the first floor. In addition there are three bedroom suites, with four further bedrooms, two further bathrooms, a study, utility room and store room. There is a patio off the kitchen on the ground floor and a superb roof terrace on the first floor ideal for entertaining. The house is presented in very good condition throughout and also benefits from a garage which is held on a separate lease.

The house is located on Cheyne Place and is conveniently close to Sloane Square and the Kings Road.
