Cleverly designed storage solutions are found throughout the home, ensuring practicality matches style.

Outside, the property continues to impress. A recently added driveway provides ample parking for multiple vehicles, while the private rear garden is designed for low-maintenance living. With its combination of AstroTurf lawn and a decked seating area, it offers the perfect space for both family time and entertaining. The garden also benefits from a substantial brick-built outbuilding, currently used as a garage but offering huge potential as a workshop, gym, or home office.
