Located in the peaceful village of Dulnain Bridge within the Cairngorms National Park, this attractive three-bedroom semi-detached home offers generous accommodation across two floors and benefits from spacious gardens to the front and rear. Positioned on a quiet street, the property enjoys an excellent level of privacy and is ideally suited for a variety of purchasers. The ground floor is well arranged and comprises a welcoming entrance vestibule leading into a central hallway with access to all main living areas. To the front of the home, the sitting room features a bay window with a pleasant outlook, a focal fireplace with stone surround, and display shelving. The large kitchen/dining area at the rear offers ample space for cooking and dining, with a good range of units, worktop space, and plumbing for appliances, in addition a window that fills the room with natural light. A ground-floor bathroom with bath, WC and wash hand basin completes the lower level. Upstairs, a bright landing leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom overlooks the front garden, while the other two rooms offer flexible accommodation for guests, children or home working. Each bedroom features generous dimensions and enjoys good natural light. The exterior offers significant appeal, with a large enclosed front garden laid mainly to lawn and bounded by fencing. To the rear, the garden is also enclosed and benefits from timber storage sheds and a patio seating area. This is an excellent opportunity to acquire a spacious and comfortable home in an attractive Speyside village, close to local amenities and transport links, with Grantown-on-Spey and Aviemore just a short drive away.
