Diamond Close, Shavington, Crewe, Cheshire is an exceptional family home. Impeccably presented throughout, this is truly a stunning and aspirational property, which also occupies a desirable position in a setting which is both convenient and comparatively tucked-away too. The property has been upgraded, redecorated, recarpeted and improved by its current owners to create the wonderful home now offered for sale.

The addition on an Electric Vehicle Charging Point is a great bonus, while having both a garage and off road driveway parking, as well as a good size garden too, means this lovely home really does stand out from the norm in modern homes. With such a great combination of presentation, features, condition and position, early viewing here is most certainly highly recommended and is available, by appointment only.
