Cliff Bank Hamlet, off Burnley Road East, Rossendale is an unusual development with full planning permission for 2 homes designed as a 2/3rd - 1/3rd split dwelling (Or could be made as one detached subject to planning change). Designed to match other buildings close by, in the style of a stone mill building, featuring large open plan living, upside down style living, large windows and a fully glazed south facing facade. Designed with accessibility and future-proofing in mind, the properties have been designed to incorporate many features which would both improve their appeal and their value too. As such, the site is predicted to have a GDV of £600k, representing an outstanding investment opportunity too.

With approval documentation available and a material start made, planning here is extant and the plot also has building regulations approval too. The two properties to be built as planned, represent both a contemporary, architect designed scheme and a high quality of generously spacious and appealing living space.

- Full, extant planning permission for 2 units
- All required site investigations completed
- Building Regulations approval in place, including Structural Engineer Drawings
- Initial Planning conditions signed off
- SAP Calculations completed
- UFH System planned & specified through Continual UFH
- Construction type - Insulated Concrete Form construction with stone outer, SIPS roof, triple glazed windows
- Predicted End Value - Unit 1 @ £350k, Unit 2 @ £250k

Situated close to local amenities and with open countryside a short walk away, the site enjoys a convenient location which is ideal for connections to public transport, commuter routes and motorway links too. With open countryside and parkland walks both nearby, the site also gives easy access to a 24 hour gym, dance school and food options within moments. Bacup & Rawtenstall Grammar, Waterfoot Primary School and Valley Academy are all within walking distance, while a great range of further shopping, sports & leisure, entertainment and other local amenities are all within a short distance too.
