A well kept, deceptively spacious home, ideally located in the sought after residential area of Kingskerswell. This detached bungalow offers flexible accommodation including spacious lounge, 2/3 bedrooms with the master being en-suite, shower room, kitchen and utility room. It has its own solar panels currently producing around a £1000 of income per annum. The property nestles in an elevated position of this quiet cul-de-sac backing onto established woodland and from the front aspect it enjoys views out across Kingskerswell towards Dartmoor in the distance. It is Just a short drive from Newton Abbot town centre, the road networks and the local amenities of Kingskerwell itself. Must be viewed to appreciate the size of accommodation it has to offer.
