LOCATION

St Mary's Chambers is situated fronting Haslingden Road, the A681, close to the end of the A56 Edenfield bypass. The property, therefore, has excellent connectivity to the M66, M60 and national motorway network.

It is also well placed for the town centre shopping amenities of Rawtenstall, which are within walking distance.

DESCRIPTION

St Mary's Chambers is a landmark listed building, originally built in 1857 and fully refurbished to create modern offices.

It has all the benefits of a character building, but with a modern specification, including a lift, air handling, excellent amenities and flexible layouts, with both cellular and open plan accommodation.

There is Cat II lighting and skirting trunking. The suite is located on the first floor. Conference facilities are available, on the ground floor, during normal working hours.
