

Property Description

A little bit special... This gated two-bedroom detached bungalow offers so much charm! If you like gardening, then this property is for you. To the rear of the property, you will find a beautifully landscaped rear garden including a large koi pond with all the pumps and filters, a separate Japanese style pond, four fruit trees, a vegetable patch, a dove cot as well as many rose bushes and shrubs.

The property is located only a short walk from Crownfields Primary School and multiple public transport links leading to Romford Town Centre and Station. We highly advise viewings of this property to really appreciate all that is to offer. There is also potential for extensions to the loft of the property to make it into a chalet style bungalow STPP.
