Lovely cottage property which is full of character, situated in a pleasant hamlet location just off the main A590 between Ulverston and Greenodd. Offering versatile accommodation of character that has been enjoyed and cared for by the current owners for many years and is now reluctantly offered for sale due to relocation. Comprising of kitchen/breakfast room, hall, lounge, dining room, study, porch and ground floor shower room with three bedrooms one with an ensuite to the first floor. Electric heating, stoves and uPVC double glazing. Its location offers open views beyond its own garden and surrounding countryside towards the Crake Estuary. Completing the cottage is the benefit of off-road parking and a beautiful garden that is particularly well cared for and tended by the current owners, offering an excellent outside space. On top of this the location offers convenient access to the nearby market town of Ulverston and this lovely no chain, cottage is considered suited to a range of buyers with early viewing both invited and recommended.

DIRECTIONS

Proceeding out of Ulverston along the A590 after the first dual carriage way turn left towards Arrad Foot. Proceed along the road and take the first turn on the left and then right up towards the property. The property has a name plate and is the middle one of the cottages.
