Superb opportunity to acquire an architect designed detached family home set in established and private grounds in an enviable plot giving the property a highly attractive approach in a hugely popular location situated close to local shops, schools, Fumess General Hospital and within easy reach of Barrow Town Centre. Suitable for a variety of buyers, with some updating and modernisation required which has been reflected in the more than realistic asking price. Comprising of hall, lounge with a super outlook to the garden, reception room, dining room, kitchen, bedroom with built-in wardrobes and bathroom to the ground floor with a further three good sized bedrooms, family bathroom and storage room to the first floor. Complemented with a warm air central heating system and mostly secondary glazing. Externally are good sized, well-established gardens with mature trees and laid mostly to lawn. Double gated driveway access from Hawcoat Lane with parking for several vehicles and access to front door and garage. Early inspection is strongly recommended with early/vacant possession available.

Accessed through a door with glazed inserts.
