Location

Wrentham is a charming Suffolk village full of character, community spirit, and everyday convenience. With a selection of local shops, welcoming pubs, and essential services, it offers a well-rounded lifestyle in a picturesque setting. The village is active and sociable, home to a bowls club, football team, and its own brass band, with local news and events shared through the popular "Wren Letter." Ideally located just half a mile from the unspoilt coast at Covehithe and close to the vibrant town of Southwold, Wrentham also benefits from excellent bus links to Norwich and beyond. As part of a conservation area, its architecture has been carefully preserved, giving the village a timeless charm that blends beautifully with modern living.
