Outside

To the rear, composite decking laid in a striking chevron 'V' design, bordered by raised flower beds and brick surroundings, creates a stylish and functional outdoor space. This area is complemented by outdoor lighting and a feature lamppost, making it ideal for al fresco dining and evening entertaining. The space is further enhanced by decorative features, a private setting with sea views, and a decorative brick wall. A spiral staircase and intricately detailed steps provide access to the lower garden level, completing this beautifully landscaped terrace.

The lower level features a pathway leading to three storage units and a decorative stone area with patio slabs, outdoor lighting, and power points. Timber steps descend to a private decking area with stunning tree views, bordered by raised flower beds and decorative stone walls, and featuring a timber-framed pergola. Further brick steps lead down to a pond with lamppost lighting, surrounded by mature plants and shrubs. Beyond this lies a purple slate area, with additional steps leading to an extensive rear garden, fully enclosed by secure fencing.
