This charming two bedroom apartment on Onslow Gardens has fantastic views over the communal garden square and an abundance of light throughout the property. There is an open plan, modern, intergrated kitchen/reception room with high ceilings and three large sash windows and a lovely fireplace. The master bedroom has wonderful in built storage and a king size bed. The second bedroom to the rear of the property has a double bed and ample storage with a walk in storage cupboard. There is a terrace large enough to entertain on with pretty views over the local church and mews. The apartment has a good size family bathroom with rainforest shower and an additional WC for guests. The property has been decorated in soft tones making the feel of this property very tranquil. There is parquet flooring throughout the apartment and it has the added benefit of direct lift access.
