

Archies Row, Alderney
£640,000

A superb detached 5 bedroom 3 bathroom house, set in a peaceful private estate.

The house has been beautifully decorated throughout, all rooms are bright and spacious, even the entrance hall is broad and welcoming, and leads you through to all the rooms with ease.

The lounge has a feature fireplace, and patio doors open out to the gardens that surround the property on all sides.

The house has the benefit of a first floor that has an amazing self-contained unit, with a small kitchenette, a lounge, a double bedroom and an en suite bathroom.

The house is fully double glazed and has an oil fired central heating system.

External the house has gardens on all four sides hence benefitting from the sun from the East the South and the West, so sun all day !

This house needs to be seen to be fully appreciated.
