

28 Glynrhondda Street, Cardiff, CF24 4AN

£4,710

Each of the 7 double bedrooms comes with a double bed, desk and chair and plenty of storage space for all your belongings. There are 3 shower rooms, spread over the three floors, so you'll never have to fight getting ready in the mornings and the large open plan kitchen and lounge is perfect for communal living. The kitchen area comes fully equipped with modern appliances and the lounge comes furnished with sofas and a flat screen television. This area sits at the front of the house with large bay windows, giving the room a bright and spacious feel.

Glynrhondda Street is in a very popular student area of Cardiff, very close to Cathays train station. The infamous Pen & Wig pub is just a few roads down and Cardiff city centre is just a short 15 minute walk away, meaning that every amenity you could think of it practically on your doorstep! Restaurants, supermarkets, bars, clubs, pubs and shops are all very easily accessible from here. The Universities are also very close by, meaning you'll never have an excuse for being late to lectures!
