CHESTERTONS

Welcome to a true hidden gem that is centrally located yet incredibly peaceful at the end of Vernon Yard, tucked behind Portobello Road, W11 (RBK&C Residents Parking) and the gardens of houses on Kensington Park Road.

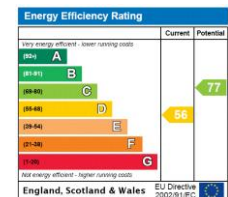

First time on the market since 1995, originally a run of cow sheds with hay lofts above! This unique group of farm buildings has been amalgamated and completely re-fashioned by the architect owners to become an exceptional home. It has five bedrooms, five bathrooms and two garages. The highlight of the house is the incredible lateral, penthouse living space at the second floor.

The Corten steel panelling on the outdoor fireplace and façade, as well as other industrial fixtures add a raw, edgy feel that suits the context of this part of the Royal Borough. It is designed by the owners who are award winning architects. They have developed a warehouse type feel and on the top floor, which is flooded with natural light, they have made a dynamic space, that feels other-worldly.

Don't miss the chance to own this quiet architectural masterpiece set in the very heart of Notting Hill, W11.
