Description

We are delighted to offer this Stunning Extended Bungalow sitting on 0.16 of an acre with a Large Beautiful Rear Garden in a quiet close in Ferring Village. Internal Viewing is a MUST to fully appreciate its quality, the plot and its position. It is situated between the South Downs National Park and the Beach, which is just over a mile away. It has good access to shops, bus routes and the local train service from Goring serves London, Brighton, Portsmouth and Southampton. The Bungalow has been completely renovated and the extension allows for wonderful open plan living and a flow from each room to another. There is a modern fully fitted kitchen which accesses the Dining area easily with folding doors overlooking and onto the amazing rear garden. There are two double bedrooms with fitted furniture and the Master has access onto the rear garden and a large En-suite Shower Room. In addition there is another Shower room/w.c. Outside is a driveway to the garage and the front lawn has a gate leading to the side garden, entertaining cabin and the exceptional Garden at the rear of the property.
