This impressively renovated property benefits from a certified full rewire in 2022 (confirmed by our vendor) and updated Gas Central Heating boiler for the central heating system along with new radiators throughout. The Windows and doors are double glazed.

The remodelled ground floor now includes an enclosed internal hallway. With door to open plan Lounge and Kitchen, with new cabinetry. Appliances include a fridge and freezer, fitted oven, induction hob and contemporary extractor. There's a stylish composite sink drainer and space for a dishwasher.

On entering the hallway, via an updated stylish composite front door and an internal door, opens to the main living reception lounge featuring built-in shelving with integrated lighting and cupboards below. The open plan - connecting kitchen has seating island and a new range of quality wall and base cabinetry with a range of new fitted appliances including oven and induction hob with contemporary styled extractor and a smart composite sink. Concealed lighting and plinth lighting add warmth and led spot lighting to the ceiling.

The double-glazed rear door from the kitchen, gives access to the lobby with doors either side to the garden and the covered walkway access - which is shared as access to the neighbouring property.

Across the lobby is a utility room with space and plumbing for washing machine and dryer. In addition, there's a w.c and hand basin to serve the ground floor guests.

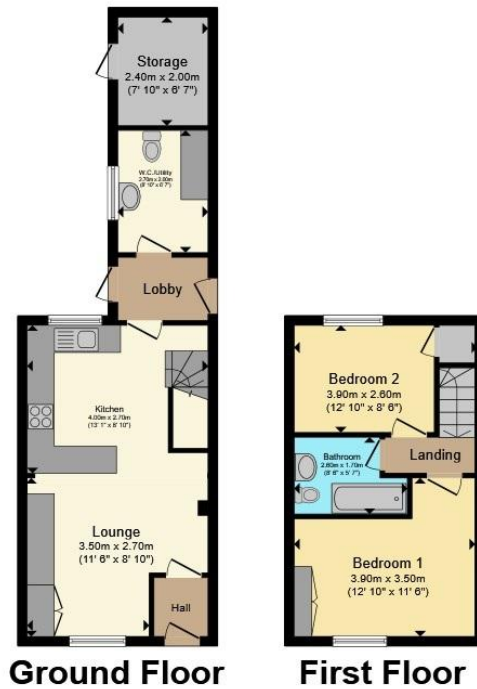

The first-floor bathroom is stylishly refitted. The principal bedroom has bespoke fitted wardrobes. Bedroom two has window to the rear aspect garden.

Outside

The rear garden offers an immediate patio courtyard with access to the brick store barn and a lawned area, gated access to the side boundary allows the neighbour the right to access the walkway to the opposite side aspect.
