DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the charming village of Fleckney, this lovely one-bedroom house on Forge Close is now available for rent. Perfectly suited for individuals or couples, this property offers a comfortable and modern living space.

Upon entering, you will find an inviting open plan lounge that seamlessly connects to a contemporary fitted kitchen, creating an ideal environment for both relaxation and rustling up some meals. The first floor features a spacious double bedroom, providing a peaceful retreat, along with a stylish three-piece bathroom suite, complete with a shower over the bath for your convenience.

This home is further enhanced by the benefit of two off-road parking spaces, ensuring that you will never have to worry about finding a place to park. The separate garden to the rear offers a lovely outdoor space, perfect for enjoying the fresh air or hosting gatherings with friends.

Located within close proximity to local shops, schools, and various amenities, this property is perfectly positioned to enjoy the conveniences of village life. With gas central heating and double glazing throughout, you can expect warmth and comfort all year round.

We highly recommend viewing this property to fully appreciate the presentation and location on offer. To find out more contact your local Hunters estate agents Wigston and arrange your viewing.
