

Rickman Drive, Birmingham

£1,600 Per Month

Council Tax:

Tenure:

We are pleased to welcome this well-presented town house that is available to let. The property is in good condition, offering a welcoming and comfortable space. The house is well laid out over two floors and provides generously proportioned living accommodation, and provides an allocated car parking space!

The property comprises of a large reception room, which benefits from built-in storage and direct access to a private garden. This is a perfect space for entertaining or for quiet family evenings. The kitchen is well-equipped, featuring a built-in fridge/freezer and the convenience of a provided washing machine and microwave.

There are three bedrooms in the property. The first bedroom is a double, complete with an en-suite bathroom and built-in wardrobes, offering a private

- Available Immediately
- Three good sized bedrooms, with an en-suite in the master bedroom
- Guest W/C on the ground floor
- Family sized garden
- Good size bathroom
- Allocated parking space available
- Well maintained kitchen with a washing machine and integrated fridge/freezer
- Reception room
- Storage provided throughout
- EPC : C / Council Tax : C

